The general service representative has the job of linking his or her group with A.A. as a whole. The G.S.R. represents the voice of the group conscience, reporting the group's thoughts to the district committee member and to the delegate, who passes them on to the Conference. This communication is a two-way street, making the G.S.R. responsible for bringing back to the group Conference Actions that affect A.A. unity, health, and growth. Only when a G.S.R. keeps the group informed, and communicates the group conscience, can the Conference truly act for A.A. as a whole. —AA Service Manual, pg S26

Corrections Report

Hello everyone. I am pleased to report that I met with our new programs director John McSwain on Friday the second for a proper introduction. The meeting went very well and we discussed a variety of things regarding Alcoholics Anonymous. What we do, what we don't do, that kind of stuff. He is still settling into the new position so I didn't push him on a few things right away. He seems like a really good guy with a big heart eager to help and I am very much looking forward to working with him. I will be providing him with 8 big books to start seeing as his inventory is very low and plan to provide him with another 20 before the new year. Things are starting to look up and I am hopeful to get a few more volunteers cleared to join our limited group going into the jail to carry the message.
